

Since its foundation in 2021, Hammonia Energy GmbH & Co. KG has been an international manager and owner of chemical/product tankers and oil tankers.

For the next possible entry date we are looking for a full-time (40 hrs/week)

Technical Superintendent Tanker (m/f/d)

What we offer:

- Performance-related payment
- Lunch contribution
- Contribution to company pension scheme
- Discounted Urban Sports membership
- Optional JobRad, HVV ProfiTicket
- Individuell further training opportunities
- A motivated dynamic team is currently looking after our ships and attaches great importance to its good team spirit and professional exchange
- An international working environment
- (Co-)responsibility for challenging projects
- Free for decision-making, initiative and commitment

Your profile:

- Experience / handling in the field of vetting
- Experience with MAN main engines
- Experience with Framo systems and/or steam turbines
- Relevant / demonstrable work experience at sea preferably on tankers as chief engineer (or 2/E)

- Knowledge of OCIMF and TMSA regulations
- strong knowledge of English language (written & spoken)
- very good MS Office skills
- Quick apprehension, proactive thinking and independent action
- Independent, conscientious and systematic way of working
- Ability to work under pressure / meet deadlines
- Willingness to travel, if necessary at short notice

Your main responsibilities:

- Support / supervision of the tankers in all technical matters
- Support in the introduction and maintenance of the "Safety Management System"
- Active participation in the improvement of the safety standards on board
- Monitoring of the safety requirements for the ships in our care, offering recommendations on board and dealing with deficiencies
- Supervision of the processing of internal / external deficiencies for the ongoing operation of the ship
- Plan, prepare, coordinate, prepare and check compliance with maintenance and repair schedules
- Monitoring compliance with classification, flag state and other governmental agency regulations
- Monitoring of the class status and organisation of necessary surveys
- Monitoring the condition of the vessel and conducting regular surveys including the preparation of the relevant condition reports, if necessary also in detail
- Preparation / submission of annual budget / reporting to senior management
- Monitoring of current costs within the previously prepared budget
- Preparation of periodic reports, both technical and commercial, in close cooperation with the Controlling Department
- Monitoring of communication with the ship and triggering of measures if necessary
- Preparation of certificates for captains and senior engineers once per contract and once per assignment respectively

- Supervision of orders for spare parts and consumables from the ship and acceptance of deliveries
- Processing of insurance claims
- Planning, supervision and execution of ship dockings incl. own representative presence on site, preparation and supervision of dock work lists and the necessary work to be carried out on the basis thereof
- Preparation and comparison of dock offers / reporting to Senior Management
- Support of the Technical Director
- Cooperation and collaboration with relevant departments ashore, e.g. Cre-wing, QHSE, Projects

Looking forward to receiving your detailed application documents with indication of your earliest possible starting date and your salary expectations.

Please send your digital application documents to:

HAMMONIA Reederei GmbH & Co. KG
Human Resources
Neumühlen 9
22763 Hamburg

E-Mail: office-jobs@hammonia-reederei.de
Telefon: 040 / 822 176 – 580
Website: www.hammonia-reederei.de